PRESS RELEASE

Groupama and VidaCaixa join CFO Forum

Groupama and VidaCaixa will join CFO Forum, the industry body of Chief Financial Officers of Europe's leading insurers.

CFO Forum announced today that its current members recently approved the applications for membership of both leading international insurance groups. Groupama and VidaCaixa are established in France and Spain respectively.

"I welcome Groupama and VidaCaixa to the European Insurance CFO Forum", said Matt Rider, Chairman of CFO Forum and Chief Financial Officer of Aegon. "Both are key players in the insurance industry and I look forward to their contributions, particularly in the technical working groups. I am convinced that Groupama and VidaCaixa will further strengthen our ability to respond to regulatory and accounting developments that are relevant for our industry."

"Groupama is committed to being an active member of the European Insurance CFO Forum. We believe that we have the resources, experience and expertise to actively participate in the Forum and its working groups and together more effectively influence the development of accounting standards and regulatory requirements being established for our industry." Cyril Roux, the Chief Financial Officer of Groupama, said today.

"As the leading insurance company in Spain, VidaCaixa is committed to play an active role in the European Insurance CFO Forum. Our strategical vision of the business and the responsible investment policies allow us to strengthen the discussion and development of all those projects that have an impact on the daily performance on the sector". Jordi Arenillas, the Chief Financial Officer of VidaCaixa (CaixaBank Group), said today.
